2012—6th & Under Tourney Teams with Lax Locker

In 2010 the AYLL (Arizona Youth Lacrosse League) provided 3-4 mini weekend tournaments for their “new” age division 6th Grade & Under. 6th graders can now get the best of both worlds by still participating in the AYLL or ALL (Arizona Lacrosse League) 6-8th grade Jr High Division and/or the “New” Under 6th grade division. This gives the 6th grader more playing time, confidence and experience along with opening opportunities for league play to 5th graders and below. The Lax Locker is coordinating with the AYLL and/or ALL to field (1) or (2) Tourney teams 6th & Under. All 6th & Under are welcome.

Each Sunday, the players go through a 1 hr. fundamentals practice followed by a 1 hr. league game. Our “once a week” format is perfect for boys to play lacrosse during the winter along with other activities. Each week players learn new drills and skills that they will use in league games. This league is noted for its excellent coaching led by Albin Haglund & the Lax Locker Coaching Staff. A must league if your child wants to start and continue in lacrosse.

10 FAQ

- Do you provide water at practices & clinics? Yes, ice water is provided at all Sunday and extra practice sessions. No longer is water provided due to health related risks—must bring your own.
- Will my son get proper coaching even if it is his first time playing lacrosse? The Lax Locker is known for its excellent coaching staff. This is the best league for all players whether a beginner or veteran. We recommend beginners take our “Intro to Lacrosse” Clinics before league play!
- Do you rent equipment at the Lax Locker? No, our introductory equipment packages along with “new player” discounts assure you of quality new merchandise for almost the same price you would pay for old or used equipment.
- Will my son get equal playing time? Yes, whether beginner or veteran, all coaches are instructed to give equal play time. Most kids want off the field (lot of running) before they want in (lots of substitution.)
- Can my son be on the same team with his friends? Yes, we generally can guarantee at least one player, however, multiple requests can not be promised but we will try to accommodate..
- How do I register? You can come by our Lax Locker store or you can simply mail or fax the registration form in with payment info. We accept all major credit cards (MC, Visa, Amex, Dis).
- How do you communicate information during the season? We almost entirely communicate through e-mail. (Very important you include your e-mail address on your registration form neatly and accurately. We also make information available through our website www.laxlocker.com.)
- What happens if we miss a week or two due to vacation or illness? We have adequate players on the roster so no team is left shorthanded—there are no prorations or refunds of league fees.
- Why do K-12th graders have to join U.S. Lacrosse? U.S Lacrosse is the governing body of most lacrosse leagues in the country. Our liability and certificate of Insurance is with US Lacrosse. Everyone must be a member before they can participate.
- What if my son is playing in an AYLL (Arizona Youth Lacrosse League) or ALL (Arizona Lacrosse League team for the Winter Jan thru March)? We still recommend our leagues as they are inexpensive, complement your AYLL or ALL schedule and offer the best in instruction, especially the fundamentals. Sometimes younger players are cast aside with a high school player and not given proper time or instruction of the game.
